ABOUT ME:

I'm a Jr Full-stack developer and also a public accountant student. I'm a self-taught enthusiast of technology and web development, having used various platforms to improve my knowledge about software technologies such as: JavaScript | HTML5 | CSS3 | React | Redux | Express | PostgreSQL | Sequelize | SQL | Node JS | GitHub. I have finished the +800hs SoyHenry bootcamp currently working on both an individual and a group project. I would love to grow on the front-end side of development although I'm capable of working on back-end as well.
